Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we mark the transition to ordinary time after the Christmas Season ended with the Baptism of the Lord last Sunday. I hope your Christmas Season was a blessed time of celebration, and your New Year is off to a good start. I want to take a moment to thank so many of you who shared Christmas cards, sent gifts of all different kinds, and shared the blessings of the season. My experience of Christmas and the New Year in our parish was very edifying this year in so many ways, especially as I reflected and looked back upon the many blessings and accomplishments within our community in 2024.

This new year also brings a number of new staff to our parish team. You may have noticed a number of new names in the bulletin over the past few weeks and months. Sarah Bofferding, Connie Savageau, Ron Ward, and Emily Dietz are all new staff members that have become a part of our team. Please welcome them to their new roles, and I hope to be sharing more about their new roles in weeks to come, especially in some of our online communications channels. If you are not part of our weekly email, it's possible to sign up at the bottom of our website at www.stsaaj.org or by contacting Steve in the parish office.

Let us pray for one another as we continue to serve the Lord Jesus together in faith, hope, and love in this new year.

Peace of the Lord,

Fr. Luke Meyer, Pastor

McChoir's Music Corner

I love the changing of seasons—the changing weather of our 4 seasons (questionable statement where we live of course...) brings about a renewed appreciation for different aspects of creation: snow in winter, the summer heat, flowers blossoming in springtime, the leaves of fall. Liturgical seasons do something similar, where we are renewed by The Word in new ways throughout the liturgical year: Advent anticipates the coming of Christ, Lent emphasizes penance & fasting, Easter resounds with “Alleluias” as we rejoice in the Lord’s Resurrection. So what about Ordinary Time, and what about music? The Universal Norms for the Liturgical Year states that in Ordinary Time, “no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ itself is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays.” So though there is no one ‘key theme’ during this season, the ‘key theme’ is Christ himself. Perhaps we could say that ‘in Ordinary Time, we appreciate Him for who He is.’

Today’s entrance antiphon comes from Psalm 66: “All the earth shall bow down before you, O God, and shall sing to you, shall sing to your name, O Most High!” As such, “All Creatures of Our God and King” seemed a good fit as today’s processional hymn. Over the next few weeks, I encourage you to look at the selections for the entrance antiphon in your missal as they highlight the theme of praise to God. In many cases over the next month there are specific references to singing his praise in some form in these entrance chants. Speaking about sacred music, Pope Benedict XVI put it beautifully: “When man comes into contact with God, mere speech is not enough.” (The Spirit of the Liturgy) And so it is with great joy at the mystery of Christ in all seasons that we sing his praises without end!
