McChoir's Music Corner

Alleluia! He is Risen!! Easter joy overflows from our hearts now as we celebrate with exuberance the saving action of Jesus Christ our Lord. Easter is such a grand feast that it cannot be contained to one day, so each of the following weekdays is considered a Solemnity in the church calendar. That means that each of the weekdays during the Easter Octave are to be sincerely joyful celebrations at Mass, filled with singing and 'Alleluias' galore! As such, we will once again have music at all of the 12:10pm Masses throughout this next week. If you don't normally attend these daily Masses, the Octave of Easter is a great time to add a Mass to your weekly schedule. We'll even bring the bell choir out on Thursday to add another layer of joy to our celebration. This is a great time to be a church musician, there is so much joyous energy that pours out of all of us in the Easter season. I love hearing all of you trumpet out the great tunes of this season like "Jesus Christ is Risen Today," "At the Lamb's High Feast We Sing," "Ye Sons and Daughters," and so many more! May the Lord bless you all with abundance as we sing his praises together this Easter Season.
