McChoir's Music Corner

Today's great feast of Corpus Christi (The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ) contains a lot of great scripture to help us understand our belief in the Eucharist. It is a mystery of great significance for us, because by partaking in the Body and Blood of our Lord, we unite ourselves with God himself, in an intimate and physical way that allows us to be with Christ as we are instructed in today's Communion Antiphon: "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord." (Jn 6:57) In our First Reading and Psalm, we hear about this mysterious character named Melchizedek. He is the first biblical character to introduce the sacrificial offering of bread and wine to establish a covenant. Jesus of course offers the sacrifice 'par excellence' in his offering on the Cross, united to his action at the Last Supper, where he took bread, broke it, and gave it to his disciples. Jesus, too, was acting in a priestly manner by offering that sacrifice and establishing a new covenant with his followers, and that covenant extends to us now as well. So our music today is in response to these mysteries of the Most Holy Eucharist: "Alleluia, Sing to Jesus!" "Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All," "Draw Near and Take the Body of the Lord," and "O Sacrament Most Holy." As always, we try to highlight and draw upon the themes present in the liturgy to make our selection of hymnody in our parish. It is well worth some time in prayer and meditation to understand more deeply the significance and symbolism present in our scripture and hymns for today's great feast!
