McChoir's Music Corner

Today's recessional hymn is the fantastic text by Frederick William Faber: "Faith of Our Fathers." For him, this was about the martyrs of England who had gone before to pave the way for the church in his own country. As many now do, we sing it with a great host of martyrs in mind, and all those who have paved the way for the Catholic Church to thrive! Perhaps no greater examples of this missionary work exist beyond Sts. Peter & Paul, whom we remember today. "In spite of dungeon, fire and sword," these men carried out the mission given to them directly by Christ: "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations..." (Mt 28: 19) I cherish the opportunity to give voice in honor of their example. To do so grounds us closer to Christ by seeing those who were close to him also. In the case of Sts. Peter & Paul, we mean about as close as you can get! Recalling the example of our beloved saints encourages great zeal for us who live today, for we are all called to be saints! As we strive for such devout living with our Lord, we can be encouraged to see that other men and women were able to live a 'saintly' life. We know it is possible for us to do the same, which really inspires me as we sing out in the refrain: "Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death!" May we all aspire to such a profound example as those of Sts. Peter & Paul.
