Patrick McGuire's Music Corner

Today is known as "Gaudete Sunday" in the Advent season. 'Gaudete' is Latin for 'Rejoice,' and is the first word of the Entrance Antiphon for today's liturgy. The word 'rejoice' with its accompanying themes are sprinkled throughout the prayers and texts of this liturgy. Today we get to bring our attention a little more readily to the joy that is to come when our Savior, Jesus Christ, comes down to earth from heaven. I adore the text from Isaiah that we get to sing today at communion: "Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear. Behold, our God will come, and he will save us." (Isaiah 35:4) Now that is an encouragement if I have ever heard one! I hope you are giving those communion chants a try—I'm hearing a little more sound from the congregation with each refrain, it's very gratifying to hear us grow into this new practice. "I say again: Rejoice!"
