STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value..." (PHILIPPIANS 1:9-10)

During the Christmas shopping season it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that "gift" truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your "obligation" to give them something? To grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them and learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less "stuff" and spend more time with those you love.

Developing Our Children's Gifts

"Learning how to be Christ-like in words and actions and how to make choices that are in accordance with the Catholic faith are essential to why we chose Catholic education for our children. The value we put in academic excellence as a grateful and pleasing response to God's precious gifts is very much aligned with JPPI's core values. Through Catholic education, these gifts are cultivated and given purpose through service and community. It is our hope and prayer that our children go out into the world being instruments of God's love, sharing their gifts in response to the needs of the community."

McChoir's Music Corner

Today's communion hymn is an old classic originally titled "Conditor alme siderum," now seen here as "Creator of the Stars of Night." This is a 7th century text that has been sung for generations in the Catholic Church and beyond. I love the connection to our past with the words and the melody that accompanies it. Verse 5 is a striking reminder that Advent is not only about preparing for the coming of the Lord at Christmastime, but that we prepare our souls for when Christ shall come again: "O thou whose coming is with dread, To judge the living and the dead, Preserve us, while we dwell below, From every insult of the foe." What a 'wake up call' that is! The more I get into these ancient texts and see the basis of our liturgy from liturgical sources, the more I find these kind of messages that call us deeper to conversion, perseverance, and holiness. We don't really get enough of that in our modern world, and I think Advent is a timely reminder for us to keep our gaze focused heavenward, to the 'Creator of the stars of night...'
