Catechesis in the Domestic Church: The Prayer Corner

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

Last week our focus was on the Holy Bible and lifting it up in our homes, what better way to do this than giving God’s Word a fitting place in the home in a prayer corner or at a prayer table! This space can be used independently by children or gathered around by the whole family.

- Here’s what you could use to make a prayer corner in your home:
- A Low table (accessible to children)
 - A table cloth or table runner in the color of the liturgical season (green, white, red, or violet)
 - A beautiful pillow or bookstand for the Holy Bible
 - A small votive candle
 - Prayer cards– these can be made by children by beautifully writing words or short phrases from Scripture or the Liturgy
 - A crucifix, statue, or image of Jesus

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Where's the Gloria?!

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Where was the 'Glory to God' today? The general rule of thumb for singing the 'Gloria,' is that it occurs on Sundays and Feast Days. So isn't it a Sunday/Solemnity!? It sure is, but this week is unique: The Solemnity of All Souls is a special feast day called a "Commemoration." The formal title for this liturgy is, "The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed." A 'commemoration' is not the same as a 'celebration' in Catholic liturgy, and the liturgy that commemorates our dearly departed loved ones is such a liturgy. So, we don't sing the hymn of glory to God on this day, for there is a somber remembrance of our friends and family who have gone before us.

Likewise, Catholics generally do not ascribe the colloquial "celebration of life" terminology to Christian funeral rites. "The Church through its funeral rites commends the dead to God's merciful love and pleads for the forgiveness of their sins." (OCF #6) We 'commend' our brothers and sisters to the Lord, acknowledging that we feel this separation and pain of losing our loved ones. And through all of that, we have abundant hope in the life that is to come. Even without singing our hymn of glory to God today, we know what he has promised us in heaven, and today is a great day to remember this promise.

We pray for our entire church community to remember that 'we are dust, and to dust we shall return,' and that our souls will live on in eternity.
