Looking for a spiritual home? We'd love to welcome you into our parish family! Stop by the Welcome Table in the Gathering Space after any Sunday Mass to learn more and register. You can also join by calling the parish office or visiting us during the week.

Assisted Listening System

A new wifi based assisted listening system is available for use in the main church. Download the ListenWifi App, connect to the Listen Wifi network, and our feed should populate.

Livestream Mass Available

Livestream is temporarily only available for the Sunday 9:15am Mass. Keep checking in for updates related to offered masses. Find them on Facebook, YouTube, or www.stsaaaj.org/media/livestream.

MASS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Proclaimers needed!

Proclaimers share the Word of God with the congregation by reading Scripture during Mass and other liturgies. Through clear and prayerful proclamation, they help all present encounter God's voice in His Word.

A well-prepared, heartfelt reading can open hearts, deepen faith, and inspire reflection long after Mass ends.

Other Liturgical Minister Opportunities

Greeters ensure parishioners and visitors alike feel welcome.

Ushers facilitate the offertory collection and seat the congregation during full liturgies.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EHMC) assist in the distribution of the Eucharist during Mass. EMHCs may also assist in homebound and hospital ministry.

Gift Bearers offer the bread and wine to the clergy on behalf of the congregation.

Do you feel called to share God's Word? To volunteer and receive training as a proclaimer, call the office and ask for Sue!

Catechesis in the Domestic Church: Keeping the Lord's Day

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

We are commanded by God to "Keep holy the Sabbath". For us as Christians, this commandment is to keep holy the Lord's Day (Sunday). Here are a few ways enter into the Lord's day with kids, teaching them to observe this day of worship, rest, and leisure!

Worship: Make Mass the most important part of your family's day by dressing in your Sunday best and listening to or reading aloud the day's Gospel and discussing as a family (the Hallow app's Family Mass Prep is great for this!)

Rest and Leisure: We are to rest and refrain from servile labor on Sundays! Save the intensive house projects and chores for Saturday and if not an "essential worker", keep your work phone/email/etc. put away for the day. Minimize the use of tv's, tablets, and phones and take time for free play, games, or time outdoors!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Jerusalem Again?

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Last week for All Souls Day we closed Mass with the joyful tune, "Jerusalem, My Happy Home." This week, we began our liturgies with this same upbeat hymn! Though unrelated on the surface, there is a nice tie-in for this hymn in both last week's context of All Souls, and this week's celebration of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. When we sang this hymn last week, we were looking to the "New Jerusalem Above" as the heavenly realm where all our sorrows shall cease. This week, we sing it while pondering the beauty of earthly temples built to prefigure this same heavenly Jerusalem. Consider the Eucharistic preface from the Roman Missal: "Here is foreshadowed the mystery of the true Temple, here is prefigured the heavenly Jerusalem." ("The Mystery of God's Temple") In one context, we yearn for something that we can only see once we come to the end of our earthly lives, in this week's context, we appreciate the beauty that is present before us, that gives us a foretaste of the goodness that is to come.

The church builds beautiful churches because when we enter a beautiful sacred space, our hearts and minds are lifted up towards heavenly things. Consider how many people make pilgrimages to Rome to see places like the Lateran Basilica, they don't just go because Rome is the 'heart of the church,' they go because it is the beautiful & authentic heart of the church! Likewise, in our liturgies, we don't sing because someone told us we have to; we sing because it is the most beautiful and authentic response we can offer to God in thanksgiving for all his goodness to us. By our singing, our voices are quite literally lifted up, like incense makes visible the lifting up of our prayers, to God who reigns above in the new, heavenly Jerusalem.
