CATECHESIS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

The Annunciation

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

In the midst of Lent, the Church pauses on March 25th to celebrate the Annunciation, the moment when the Angel Gabriel brings God's message to Mary, and she responds with her faithful "yes." Even during a penitential season, this feast is marked with great joy, reminding us that God's saving plan is already unfolding!

The Annunciation reveals something essential about Lent: it is not only a time of giving things up, but a time of making room for God. Mary's fiat, "Let it be done unto me," becomes a model for every Christian heart.

In the Domestic Church, families can celebrate this feast in simple ways:

- Enjoy a treat or relax a Lenten fast
- Pray the Angelus together
- Read the Gospel account (Luke 1:26–38). Pause and wonder with your children: How did Mary listen? How did she trust?

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

I Shall Not Die, But Live!

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Today's communion chant offers a hopeful promise from the Gospel of John: "Everyone who lives and believes in me will not die forever, says the Lord." (Cf. John 11: 26) I love the pairing of this antiphon with Psalm 130, which is sung by the cantor as the verses for this chant. We got that text twice in today's liturgy, as it was also sung for the responsorial psalm!

To put a bow on everything, I selected "Abide with Me" as a hymn for communion, sharing a similar theme to the chant we sang before it. Whether or not we had time to sing all the verses, I think some extra time with the final verse of that hymn is well worth some attention if you are interested in something new to pray with/about in these last days of Lent: "Hold then your cross before my closing eyes; shine through the gloom and point me to the skies! Heaven's morning breaks and earth's vain shadows flee; In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!"

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The 8:30am Mass on Saturday, March 28 will be a Mass of Confirmation and Initiation for OCIA. Mass will be longer than usual that day.
