ESSENTIA HOSPITAL MINISTRY

Do you feel called to bring the comfort and presence of Christ to those who are hospitalized? Our parish is seeking volunteers to serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion for our Essentia hospital ministry.

Hospital ministry volunteers visit patients, offer prayer, and bring Holy Communion. A one-to-two-hour commitment each month is a meaningful opportunity to share your time and faith with those in the hospital. You do not need to be a current EMHC to volunteer. Training will be provided. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Sue in the parish office, sriplinger@stsaaj.org or call Sue at 701-612-2478.

BLOCK PARTY

A huge thank you to all those that came out and participated in Friday's Block Party in some way!

We had over 100 volunteers lending their efforts in dozens of ways by: grilling burgers, checking guests in, pouring beer, donating items, and much much more! I am so thankful for the community coming together to create such a special event for so many.

We had over 2,600 individual registrations. Of the nearly 800 families that attended, approximately 60% were non-parishioner families from surrounding neighborhoods. Mother Theresa said that each of us has the ability to do small things with great love. With that sentiment in mind, thank you again living out the love of Christ in a tangible way by being a welcoming face to our broader community and kicking off Spring the right way!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

The Hymn As a Teacher

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

40 Days after the resurrection of Jesus (give or take a few...) we celebrate his Ascension into heaven. "Hail the Day that Sees Him Rise" (LLANFAIR) is the quintessential hymn of the day. These types of hymns are a perfect teaching tool for novice singers, like young children learning to sing, of which we have many in our "family of families" at Sts. Anne & Joachim. Here is how the hymn is constructed: The text is split up into four parts with a short "Alleluia" attached to each phrase. Of the four lines of music, three of them are the exact same thing .

The third line imitates the others— notice the similar rhythms and contour of the melody. Because of this structure, anyone new to singing out of a hymnal, or who hears this hymn for the first time, is able to catch on to the consistent pattern. My daughters already sing the 'Alleluia' in hymns like this, because the repetition of the same word and melody even allows illiterate toddlers like her, the ability to participate in our singing. The excited yet bashful smile that paints her face when she joins the congregation in song is an incredible delight to me as a father.
