CATECHESIS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

Pentecost

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

Today the church celebrates the great feast of Pentecost! We remember the gift of the Holy Spirit given to the Apostles (and to us!). We also mark this day as the Birthday of the Church: filled with the Holy Spirit, the Apostles went out and began to preach the Gospel, beginning the work of the Church! Here are a few ways to live this feast in the Domestic Church:

- Throw a birthday party for the Church! Enjoy cake and ice cream, wear party hats, sing songs about and to the Holy Spirit.
- Talk about the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and have everyone choose one they would like to ask the Holy Spirit for more of: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, Fear of the Lord.
- Red everything! The Liturgical color for this feast of great Love is red – dress in red, put red flowers around the house, use a red tablecloth for dinner, eat from red paper plates, etc.
- Get crafty: Create or draw the symbols of the Holy Spirit (doves and flames)

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Come Holy Spirit

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

'Happy Birthday to the Church!' Today we celebrate Pentecost, the day the disciples were sent on mission to the world, having the Holy Spirit breathed upon them by Christ himself: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Jn 20: 21)

This solemnity marks the end of the Easter season, and with it, we sing one of the great and ancient 'Sequence Hymns' of the Church. You may recall singing the "Victimae Paschali Laudes," or "Christians to the Paschal Victim" Sequence Hymn on Easter Sunday (and throughout the octave!). Just as we begin Easter by singing a sequence, we close the Easter season in the same way with "Veni, Sancte Spiritus," or "Come, Holy Spirit." This hymn originated sometime in the 13th century, possibly written by Pope Innocent III. It garnered the nickname, "Golden Sequence" because it stood out amongst hundreds of Sequence Hymns once in circulation throughout the Catholic Church.

It is a great sacred poem filled with beautiful imagery of The Holy Spirit who offers us the 'sevenfold gift' of: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord. If you have been around for one of Bishop Folda's confirmation Masses in the past few years, you surely remember his delightful homily as he walked around quizzing the children on these gifts they were about to receive. What a gift indeed!

AROUND THE DIOCESE

Jail Ministry-A Corporal Work of Mercy

25:36 our Lord's direct words speak clearly of the need to visit the sick and the imprisoned. The Fargo Catholic Churches seek to live out this Gospel invitation in a meaningful way through jail ministry. Each Sunday afternoon, volunteers visit inmates at the Cass County Jail for an hour of Bible study and shared prayer. These visits offer hope, encouragement, and the reminder that each person is loved and not forgotten. We are hoping to grow this ministry and warmly invite other members of the Fargo-Moorhead Catholic community to prayerfully consider joining us. Please email or call Deacon Tom O'Keefe at tom.okeefe@fargodiocese.org or 701-430-9633.
