CATECHESIS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

Praying for Vocations

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

“The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.” (Matthew 9:37)

This line from today’s Gospel was also proclaimed last week at the Ordination Mass, where our Church gained 5 new priests – praise the Lord!

Our Lord makes it clear the first step in encouraging more men and women to give their whole lives in service to the Church through priesthood and consecrated life is to pray for them. My encouragement to you is to make this prayer a part of the life of the Domestic Church!

I pray the Lord calls from the families of Sts. Anne and Joachim many young men and women to follow Him unreservedly in the Vocations of Priesthood, Consecrated Life, and Holy Matrimony, may they have ears to hear the voice of the Good Shepherd calling them!

WELCOME DEACON PAUL ZACH

Deacon Paul Zach was ordained as a transitional deacon on Friday, June 5 at St. Mary’s Cathedral in Fargo. He will be working in our parish periodically during his final year in seminary.

Where are you from? Who are your parents and siblings?

I grew up on a farm outside of Rosholt, South Dakota. After high school I went to North Dakota State College of Science for electrical (studies) in Wahpeton, which is what brought me to the Diocese of Fargo. My parents are Linus and Renee Zach and I am the youngest of six kids: Justin, Juliann, Sarah, Theresa, and Jacob.

What kind of support for your vocation did you receive from family and friends?

Since I entered seminary, I have received a lot of encouragement from family and friends but the most helpful support I have received is their prayers. The grace of intercessory prayer can be imperceptible at times, but I’m confident the prayers of others have strengthened me through my years of seminary.

When did you first hear the call to pursue the priesthood? When did that call become more real to you?

The thought of being a priest would come to mind here and there when I was growing up, but I wasn’t open to it in any way, shape, or form. In college I had a powerful experience of God’s love and mercy which began to soften my heart to the idea of becoming a priest.

Who is one of your favorite saints and why?

Saint Faustina. Her example of trust in the Lord, even in the most difficult times of her life, has been edifying and inspires me to have the same trust.

Welcome Deacon Zach!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Why Do We Sing?

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Sometimes, the simplest questions are the best. If we can't answer this question, it might stand to reason that we won't sing even if others do! So here are just a few short answers to this question, "why do we sing?"

-We take our inspiration from the book of Psalms that tells us numerous times to 'sing to the Lord.' "I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy..." (Ps 27:6). The verb 'to sing' (with related words) occurs 309 times in the Old Testament, and 36 times in the New Testament. It's all over our scripture to sing!

-"Liturgical worship is given a more noble form when it is celebrated in song, with the ministers of each degree fulfilling their ministry and the people participating in it. Indeed, through this form, prayer is expressed in a more attractive way, the mystery of the liturgy, with its hierarchical and community nature, is more openly shown, the unity of hearts is more profoundly achieved by the union of voices, minds are more easily raised to heavenly things by the beauty of the sacred rites, and the whole celebration more clearly prefigures that heavenly liturgy which is enacted in the holy city of Jerusalem." (Musicam Sacram, #5)

-"[The purpose of sacred music is] the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful." (Sacrosanctum Concilium #112)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Seven Sisters Apostolate Needs You!

This Father's Day, let us honor all of our fathers—our spiritual fathers, as well.

"Kindness to a father will not be forgotten; It will serve as a sin offering—it will take lasting root. Sirach 3:14" It is a privilege to pray for our priests! Seven Sisters Apostolate has a mission to pray for individual priests in small groups of only seven. Each woman chooses a different day of the week and offers one Holy Hour. Thus, the priest receives a Holy Hour every day. It is a blessing for the priest AND the intercessor!

Seven Sisters Apostolate has been active in the Fargo Diocese for seven years and currently has thirty groups of women praying for their parish priests. Please contact me if you're interested in this wonderful apostolate. I'm happy to come meet with the women of your parish and share some stories about the difference it makes when we support our parish priests in prayer.
