FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION

Deacon Ted LeMier, Director of Adult Catechesis

First Saturday Devotions take place at Sts. Anne and Joachim every First Saturday from September until May. During the summer months they are available online through stsaa.org, under the Liturgy and Sacraments tab. The devotion is both private and public.

Our Blessed Mother has asked us to make reparations for sins committed against her Immaculate Heart. She told the little children at Fatima, "I promise to help at the hour of death with the graces needed for salvation, whoever on the First Saturday of five consecutive months shall: go to confession, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary and keep me company while meditating on the Rosary with the intention of making reparation to me." These things can be done either in person at the church when available or at home. I look forward to leading you again in September and enjoy them now online. May God bless and keep you.

Mary Queen of Peace. Pray for us!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Follow After Me

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

The unmistakable words of Jesus likely stuck out in today's Gospel: "...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me..." This stark call to imitate the life of our Lord pierces us, and perhaps even convicts us, of our comfortable Christianity. We're not all called to be martyrs and truly suffer for our faith of course, but if you're like me, there is probably some smaller sufferings we avoid to remain 'comfortable.'

To bring the message home today, we sang "Take Up Your Cross," a Lenten classic hymn that fits perfectly in today's liturgy as well! This hymn is no more than a poetic interpretation of this same Gospel passage, and each verse offers a great little meditation on the words of Christ who calls us to follow him more closely: "Take up your cross and follow Christ, Nor think till death to lay it down; For only those who bear the cross May hope to wear the glorious crown."

ANNOUNCEMENTS
