PARISH CATECHESIS

Why Small Groups?

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

As we prepare for the school year ahead, I want to take some time to highlight one of our youth programs: YDisciple Small Groups!

YDisciple small groups come from the conviction that programs don't make disciples, disciples do. Rather than a large-group format, YDisciple gathers teens in small groups where they are known by name, accompanied by a faithful adult leader, and invited into real conversations about their faith. This program is not a class, but an opportunity for students to walk together in their faith, learning from a trusted mentor how to follow Jesus as His Disciples.

All high school students, regardless of previous involvement in our RE programs, are invited into these small groups! If you are interested in registering your high schooler, scan the qr code below! If you are interested in serving as a small group leader, please reach out to me at sbofferding@stsaaaj.org

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS-PRO LIFE MINISTRY DONATIONS

Sts. Anne & Joachim Knights of Columbus Council #11930 donated $1,250 for infant grave markers for miscarried children.

Your council has committed to providing burial cradles for miscarried and stillborn infants as part of its support for grieving families. Along with free miscarriage kits and funding infant grave markers, these burial cradles provide a meaningful final step in helping families during a difficult time.

Do you enjoy working with wood? If you would like to learn more or get involved, please contact John Clark at 701-306-3369 or jmaclark34@gmail.com.

The Sts. Anne & Joachim Pro-Life group have held fundraisers through the years on Mother's Day. Children have the ability to buy a long-stemmed rose for Mom, and these funds assist in doing memorials throughout the year, including the National Day of Remembrance and the day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of the Unborn.

However, a main project was to start and fund the decorative concrete area at Holy Cross Cemetery-North, which includes a concrete landing, bench and marker, lovingly known as the "Baby Memorial". This area is for those who suffer and mourn the loss of the unborn and who want to pay their respects to these holy innocent babies buried there. They wait as saints to help bring us ever closer to Christ Jesus's mercy and love.

Thank you everyone for your support of these ministries!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Metrical Paraphrase & Choral Catechesis

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

"O God, Our Help in Ages Past" is defined as a 'metrical paraphrase' of Psalm 90: 1-5. A 'metrical paraphrase' means that a hymn-writer has taken the scriptural text and used metrical syllabification to modify the words so that they fit in a specific metered pattern. By doing this, a variety of hymn tunes may be utilized to sing the text in an intelligible way.

If you have read my column for awhile, I've written on the subject of hymn & meter a few different times, but I never tire of explaining it, so do feel free to ask! If you are unsure about how this all works, the great British composer Ralph Vaughan Williams may have a musical example for you to understand a little more clearly. His composition, "Lord, thou hast been our refuge" brilliantly brings this metrical hymn, and the original scripture passage together in a stunning composition. The piece opens with two choirs, a smaller choir that chants the original scripture passage, while another choir sings the hymn "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" as a soft underlay to the chanted melody. I had the privilege of being exposed to this choral work during high school, and it has been a personal favorite of mine ever since!
