Sacramental Preparation

Sue Ripplinger, Director of Sacrament Prep.
We love walking with our kids as they grow in faith! In 2nd grade, they prepare for their First Reconciliation, and in 3rd grade, they prepare for First Holy Eucharist. To help them on this journey, children (and parents!) need to sign up for Sacramental Preparation through the parish, in addition to Religious Education, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, or Catholic school religion classes. If your child is older and still needs a sacrament, no worries—we'd be happy to welcome them into the program too!

WELCOME FR. ROBERT KELLER

Greetings!

My name is Fr. Robert Keller and I am excited to be assigned as a Parochial Vicar here at Sts. Anne and Joachim. While I am new to the parish, I have been a priest for 10 years. Bishop Folda has asked me to continue teaching at Shanley High School while also taking on additional responsibilities here at the parish. Most of my time will be spent teaching, but I will also be assisting with various parish ministries and Masses.

As a priest, I have served in Jamestown, St. Michael's in Grand Forks, and Holy Spirit in Fargo. Like Fr. Meyer, I received my degree in Theology from St. John Vianney Seminary in Denver, Colorado.

I grew up in rural North Dakota in the small town of Harvey, where my parents still live. My dad is retired, and my mom works in healthcare. I also have two siblings—a brother who lives in Rochester, Minnesota, and a sister who lives in Bismarck. Both of them work in healthcare as well.

Outside of my priestly ministry, I enjoy spending time with people, reading, studying, cooking, running, and hiking. My family is of German-Russian heritage, so I enjoy many of the traditional foods and pastimes of the Great Plains. I also have a love for French things and, of course, tea!

Beginning in September, I will be leading a Bible study. Teaching people about Sacred Scripture and helping them come to a deeper encounter with Christ is something I greatly enjoy, and I look forward to sharing that with you.

I am very happy to be here at Sts. Anne and Joachim, and I look forward to meeting many of you in the weeks and months ahead. Please don't hesitate to introduce yourself—I look forward to getting to know you and serving our parish community!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Thank you for Your Witness

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

The great Cardinal Josef Ratzinger (Benedict XVI) once said, "when man comes into contact with God, mere speech is not enough." I think our parish understands this in a very impactful way, because I can always hear you singing!

Whether I am at a daily Mass feast day during the week, or at any of our sung weekend liturgies, this church sings! As you may know, I frequent social media with snippets of our liturgies, and someone recently remarked that they are struck by how much our congregation participates externally through singing—they can hear you in every video. It then struck me that this is a witness of worship that is provided by each and every one of you, each and every week!

So, from a sappy music director: Thank you so much for your participation and kindness. I feel so fortunate to be here and worship with all of you!
