Registration Open!

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

Registration for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is open! Visit our website to learn more and to register.

Sacramental Preparation

Sue Ripplinger, Director of Sacrament Prep.

We love walking with our kids as they grow in faith! In 2nd grade, they prepare for their First Reconciliation, and in 3rd grade, they prepare for First Holy Eucharist. To help them on this journey, children (and parents!) need to sign up for Sacramental Preparation through the parish, in addition to Religious Education, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, or Catholic school religion classes. If your child is older and still needs a sacrament, no worries—we'd be happy to welcome them into the program too!

FALL FESTIVAL

Sunday, November 8

We are still searching for a Fall Festival Coordinator to plan a successful event.

Are you willing to step up and lead?
Contact Alfred in the parish office.

Final Call for Fall Festival Coordinator

Alfred Schwalbe, Director of Operations

Our Fall Festival is scheduled for November 8th, but we are still searching for a parishioner couple to lead as the coordinator. If we are unable to find leaders in the next two weeks, we must consider canceling or greatly reducing the scope of the Fall Festival.

The Fall Festival is truly a great parish event which brings in hundreds of people together for an enjoyable meal and evening. What does the coordinator do? The coordinator oversees sixteen areas with volunteers to chair areas from bingo, dinner, cake walk communications and everywhere in-between. You don't have to do it all yourself—we just need someone willing to take the lead!

If you have a gift for organizing, enjoy bringing people together, or simply want to help make this year's Fall Festival a success, we'd love to hear from you! If you are interested in learning more, please contact me, Alfred Schwalbe, at 701-936-8822 or aschwalbe@stsaaj.org.

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Look Up & Listen

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Today's communion chant is from Psalm 42: "Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God."

For choral church musicians, this text is quite well known due to the popularity of this setting in Latin (titled, "Sicut cervus") by one of the greatest Catholic musicians of all time, Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina. His choral setting of "Sicut cervus" has to be one of the top 3 polyphonic motets of all time. We're just one week too short to be able to offer it this year with our parish choir (who return next week!) at the 9:15am Mass, but I highlight it in this corner as something well worth listening to if you have never heard it before. If you want to find it, simply search, "Sicut cervus Palestrina" and numerous results are sure to come up on whatever music listening source you prefer.

I will also briefly mention here that we will be changing our Mass Ordinary setting for the fall next weekend as well. We have been singing my own setting, "The Mass of the Holy Family," through the summer. I am pleased to say we will return once again to Paul Jernberg's setting, "The Mass of St. Phillip Neri," starting next weekend at all Masses. Get excited!
