CATECHESIS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

The Prayer Corner

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

Last week our focus was on the Holy Bible and lifting it up in our homes, what better way to do this than giving God's Word a fitting place in the home in a prayer corner or at a prayer table!

This space can be used independently by children or gathered around by the whole family. Here's what you could use to make a prayer corner in your home:

- A low table (accessible to children)
- A table cloth or table runner in the color of the liturgical season (green, white, red, or violet)
- A beautiful pillow or bookstand for the Holy Bible
- A small votive candle
- Prayer cards— these can be made by children by beautifully writing words or short phrases from Scripture or the Liturgy
- A crucifix, statue, or image of Jesus

STEWARDSHIP WEEKEND

Bear Fruit That Will Remain

Alfred Schwalbe, Director of Operations & Stewardship

We are tremendously blessed at Sts. Anne & Joachim! Ministry programs and apostolates are growing steadily. The number of Marriages being prepared and married here has doubled in the last five years. Our OCIA program is accompanying larger classes with each new cohort. There are many signs of life at our parish which all point to the incredible blessings God is showering upon our parish. As Fr. Luke likes to say, "things are humming"!

In order to sustain and accelerate the parish's growth, we need your help. This fiscal year, we have set our offertory goal at $1,800,000 – a $250,000 or 17% increase from last year. We believe this goal is meaningful and achievable for our parish with a combination of new families starting habits of giving and existing families increasing their stewardship.

This weekend, I invite you to look at the ways the Lord has blessed our parish community and your personal life. All that we receive is a Indeed a gift from God. One gives a tithe to the Church in thanksgiving recognizing that he has given us everything.

Beginning to regular donation or the thought of increasing your giving can be intimidating. It always been helpful for me to reflect on this passage from Sirach 35:12-13 – "Give to the Most High as he has given to you, generously, according to your means. For he is a God who always repays and will give back to you sevenfold."

Please take home with you a copy of our Stewardship Brochure which outlines more details.

Thank you for being apart of our parish community. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of beginning or increasing your giving to help reach our stewardship goal this year.

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Johann to Johann!

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Even if you don't consider yourself to be a studied musician or classical music enthusiast, you probably know the name Johann Sebastian Bach. He is one of 'the big three' of classical composers that just about everyone knows, including himself, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, and Ludwig von Beethoven.

Today's communion hymn bears a remembrance to Bach, who popularized this hymn tune in his sacred cantata, "Herz und Mund und Tat und Leben," (Heart and Mouth and Deed and Life), BWV 147. The original tune actually comes from a different Johann—Johann Schop, a 17th century virtuoso violinist and all-around court musician.

The textual emphasis on Jesus as a source of fulfillment for us seems to echo the words of the Apostle Paul, who wrote, "It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ [Jesus]. Brothers, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 3: 12-14)
