CATECHESIS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

St. Maria Goretti

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

On July 6, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Maria Goretti, one of the youngest canonized saints and a powerful witness for young people!

Maria, born in Italy, was eleven years old when she was attacked by a young man named Alessandro, who intended to assault her. She refused, telling him that what he wanted to do was a sin, and that she would not offend God. She was stabbed fourteen times. Before she died, she forgave her attacker completely, expressing her hope that he would one day join her in heaven. Alessandro was initially unrepentant, until Maria appeared to him in a dream offering him a bouquet of lilies. He converted, was eventually released from prison, and was present at her canonization in 1950! St. Maria Goretti is an inspiration to greater chastity, fortitude, and forgiveness. To celebrate her feast, you could do a craft making palm branches and lilies (signs of her martyrdom and purity), enjoy an Italian meal, or visit St. Paul's Newman Center to see the stained-glass window of this young saint!

St. Maria Goretti, pray for us.

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

Where's the Patriotism

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

You may be wondering why we did not have any patriotic hymnody at Mass today—allow me to explain: In the first place, we had plenty of patriotism flowing out of our church on July 4th proper, at the 8:30am Mass on Saturday. The Roman Missal (the liturgical book we celebrate from) gives an option in the United States to celebrate a Memorial for Independence Day each year on the day of. We opted to do this and sing “America the Beautiful,” “My Country ‘Tis of Thee,” and the prayers/antiphons of the Mass carried themes of prayer for our country as well. Rest assured, this parish is proud of and prays for our nation!

Now, what about today? The Catholic Church has a hierarchical nature, whether in its governance or in its liturgical celebration. As such, there are some things, like liturgical celebrations that are more important than other observances. The Catholic Church considers its liturgical worship of the Almighty God on Sundays to take precedence over the celebration of the birthday of a single nation in the vast world God created. So, we celebrate the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, and focus on the scripture and prayers of this Mass that the Church has given to us. Within this context, we pray and worship God, who gives us all things, including our freedom and ability to pursue happiness in this land we call home.
