CATECHESIS IN THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

Religious Education and Youth Discipleship

Sarah Bofferding, Director of Catechesis

Today, the church reminds us of the importance of Catechesis, that great mission we are all called to by our baptism, which is sharing the person of Jesus Christ and his teachings entrusted to us through the Church.

On this day, I'd like to recognize and thank those volunteers in our parish that have taken this on in a formal role through teaching Religious Education classes and guiding and assisting Catechesis of the Good Shepherd this year!

McCHOIR'S MUSIC CORNER

A Happy German Export

Patrick McGuire, Director of Music

Germany is a country that has a rich history of Christian witnesses and traditions. One of the many treasures we enjoy of German-Catholic origin are the German hymnbooks that were published, among others, by German Jesuit priests. These hymnbooks, or, 'Gesangbuch' as they are called in Germany, carry many of the wonderful tunes we enjoy today, such as "Now Thank We All Our God," "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name," and hosts of others!

Today's communion hymn is another example of one of these treasures, as we sang "Fairest Lord Jesus." It originated in a 1677 Gesangbuch titled "Münster Gesangbuch." It was translated into English sometime in the 18th century and has been a staple for many denominations since then. You are likely to notice the tune sounds like the hymn, "Beautiful Savior," which indeed shares the exact same hymn tune! In fact, the hymn "Beautiful Savior" comes from the later stanzas of "Fairest Lord Jesus," they are essentially the same hymn!
